that the Employer on February 6, 2017 with the presentation of our original proposal gave notice to CUPE in accordance with article 10-4 and 5-3 of the Collective Agreement that any and all Supplementary Agreements currently would become null and void if not brought forward and mutually agreed upon during this round of negotiations. - It shall be the responsibility of either party to provide copies of any existing agreements outlined above to the other party during negotiations that they would like renewed and to be continued in force.

- Neither Party, nor any current existing Supplementary Agreement can provide an economic fiscal benefit over and above the Collective Agreement.
- Any LOU, MOU, MOA or Supplementary Agreement written by the parties will require the signature of the Manager of Labour Relations and if there are any increased costs to the agreement, this will require ratification and approval by Council.

911 Communication Centre & Legal Assistants

To clarify the intent of the language contained in the MOA related to 911 Communication Centre employees and Legal Assistants, CUPE's acknowledgement of the City's ability to bring these matters before the Manitoba Labour Board for a ruling does not limit or restrict either parties ability to make representations before the Board either in support or opposition of the matter.
